A Word from Pr. Joe

Seasons Change

We are now in the season of Lent. It is a time of preparation, of learning how to be disciples of Jesus, and to walk with Jesus even to the cross. The word 'Lent' is an old Germanic word meaning "spring," and could also refer to the lengthening of days as the sunlight increases in the northern hemisphere. The observance of Lent is ancient, and is followed by both the Eastern and Western Churches, including Orthodox, Catholic, Lutheran, Anglican, and most mainline Protestants. It is characterized often by fasting, especially in the Eastern Church. It is a forty day period, and this has its roots in the Old Testament, with Moses fasting for forty days and forty nights before receiving the Law (Exodus 34.28) or Elijah fasting for the same period of time as he went up to Mt. Horeb (1 Kings 19.8-9). And of course, Jesus himself fasted and faced temptation as he prepared for his ministry. (Mt. 4. 1-3, Mk. 1. 12-13, Lk. 4. 1-13) The early Church, certainly by the 4th Century, had established this time of fasting for 40 days before Easter. This period of forty days before Easter follows in that tradition, and prepares us to celebrate the Resurrection.

The Church does not only sanctify time by seasons. The Church also sanctifies time by particular Sundays, as well as commemorations and saints' days. Our Church calendar is the first thing after the Introduction in our hymnal, Evangelical Lutheran Worship. Pages 13-59 contain the calendar and propers for each Sunday and principal commemoration. Marking time as God's people goes far back into our history, even to the very beginning of Creation, as God declared each day and its creation as "good." Our Jewish forebears sanctified time with set times to pray, to offer sacrifice, to have days of commemoration, and days of fasting.

We modern Lutherans, being heirs of these prayers, also sanctify the day itself. Although we tend to look only at Sunday celebrations, there are more times and ways to pray that join us with the whole church. (Personal prayer at any time is how most of us spend most of our prayer time, myself included.) Monastic communities, following the tradition of the Jewish Temple prayer hours, continued, and continue, to pray at set times per day. Even Lutheran monastics follow this ancient prayer cycle, and pray without ceasing. For example, here is the horarium, or prayer times, of St. Augustine's House, a Lutheran monastery in Michigan:

- 5.10am Vigils
- 6.00am Lauds
- 8.15am Terce
- 8.30am Eucharist
- 12.00pm Sext
- 2.30pm None
- 6.00pm Vespers
- 8.30pm Compline

That's a lot of prayer! Yet everything that is done throughout the day is truly surrounded by prayer, by Scripture, by hymns and songs.

While that is not something most of us have time for, there are ways we can still participate in parts of it, setting aside times for prayer and Scripture. In our own hymnal (and in our previous hymnals) the Prayer Offices, as they are called, are present for our use. Matins (a combined Vigils and Lauds), Vespers (Evening Prayer), and Compline (Night Prayer) are right in our own hymnals. The smaller offices, such as Terce, Sext, and None, are usually filled in by Responsive Prayer (ELW, pp. 328-331). Although the first three are set to music, they can be simply read aloud as they are prayed. Scripture readings for each day are found starting on page 1121. All 150 psalms are also included in our hymnal.

I write all of this as an encouragement to pray without ceasing. We have such a great treasury of readings, psalms, and hymnody. We have beautiful gifts from the Tradition at our fingertips in our hymnal to surround our lives and our days with prayer. As we move forward on our Lenten journey through this springtime, may our days and nights be filled with prayer.

Lenten blessings,
Pr. Joe+

Education

Christian Education and Sunday School is in full swing. There is something for everyone.

Pre – K meets in classroom 2.

Elementary meets in classroom 3.

Confirmation (middle school) meets in classroom 4.

High school meets in classroom 6.

College and adults meet in the conference room.

10.00 – 10.45 a.m. each Sunday.

The high school group will begin discussing Baptized we Live by Daniel Erlander. This book does a great job of presenting Lutheran theology in a clear manner.

Altar Guild in Need of New Members

The Altar Guild is in need of new members, specifically for the late service. This would involve setting up and taking down/cleanup for communion. If you are interested, please contact Sandra Longcrier or Pastor Joe.

Altar Flower Donors Needed

Thank you to all who continue to support our altar flower ministry. Altar flower donors are needed, so please claim a Sunday to honor a loved one, celebrate a birthday or anniversary, or simply to glorify God. In addition to sharing a personal observance with the congregation, you are beautifying our church. PLUS, each Monday a member of our Caring Ministry delivers small bouquets of the altar flowers to shut-ins and members in need of a pick-me-up. Please consider claiming a Sunday soon so that we can continue adorning the altar and brightening the day for our members and friends. The cost of each altar array is $45.00. Payments may be made online at <https://secure.myvanco.com/L-Z67P/home>. Or a check can be made payable to ULCSC with the notation "altar flowers" on the memo line. Thank you for honoring our church, our services and our members in such a beautiful way!

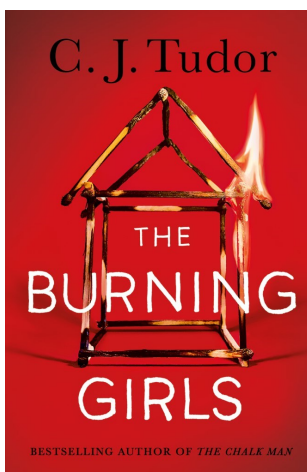

Third Friday Book Group

The Third Friday Book Group will meet on March 22 at 1:30 in the High School room. We will discuss The Burning Girls by C. J. Tudor. "Tudor strikes again with another thriller filled with twists and turns right up to the mind-bending ending." --Library Journal. You are welcome to join us for our lovely discussions.

The Quilters

In March, the quilters group will temporarily meet on the third Saturday of the month, March 16, at our new time of 11:00. Thank you to several quilters who worked on cutting some of the recently purchased 20 yard roll of batting down to 60 x 80-inch rectangles needed to sandwich quilts. The purchase of this roll was made possible by several quilting members who parked cars at an OU game. If you are interested in cutting, sewing, ironing, layering, tying and putting on a border of a quilt, you are certainly welcome to join us!

Voices for the Voiceless Update

An update of the family whose daughter sold pen and ink cards to aid in getting them out of Afghanistan: through various means, they have been evacuated to Albania! They are now waiting to get paperwork completed to get to Norman, a family reunification! The father had had a heart attack around the time the Taliban took over, which prevented him and seven others from leaving.

Refugee Sunday is March 10. That Sunday and March 17, envelopes will be available for donations or you can donate at www.nc4rs.org. Your help is greatly appreciated.

There is a plan in the works to change sewing locations from First Presbyterian to University Lutheran. The Afghan women were learning how to sew garments for their families, working on learning English and having time to socialize. More information will be given as plans are put in place.

Other Afghan news: a baby is due in early March. Major dental work continues. A woman is close to getting her driver's license. Most families are working on getting into Section 8 housing.

There is a need for light maintenance work volunteers and drivers to help drive families to doctor or other appointments. Contact normancoalition4refugees@gmail.com if you are interested in volunteering in these two or other areas.

GREEN TEAM SPRINGS FORWARD!

March- April Calendar of Events to which you're invited:

2nd and 4th Mondays at 7:00 p.m. OU's Styro-Home meetings at ULCSC

Weekdays – The Densifier Dudes densify every week in the ULCSC parking lot. Days fluctuate. Get “OJT” from the Dudes, and choose when you'd like to help. Call/text Doug Bowden (405-831-9951) for particulars.

Sat. 3/2 – densifying event in Blanchard & Newcastle (Meet at church @ 9:00 a.m. Return by 3:00 p.m.)

Tues. 3/19 – Styro-Station Orientations 3:30 AND 5:30 p.m. Become an active participant in the ULCSC green program! This orientation will give you the know-how to work on your own or with others to prepare foam for densifying. Sign up in Volunteer binder on the Welcome counter.

Sat. 3/23 – The City of Stillwater Recycling Festival 9:00 – 2:00 p.m. Densify foam we take along and meet OSU Sustainability students/faculty. Leave Norman at 7:00 a.m. A 2-hour drive pulling the trailer.

Sat. 4/6 – STEAMfest at the Moore Public Library 11:00 a.m.– 1:00 p.m. Collect and densify foam at this kid-oriented annual event.

Sun. 4/14 – Green Team Annual Plant Sale in the narthex. (For more, see below.)

Sun. 4/21 – 12:00 – 6:00 p.m. Norman's Earth Day Festival at Reaves Park. Collect and densify; have a static display in a booth; games and coloring sheets/puzzles for children (Norman North Environmental Club is hosting)

Sun. – Sat. 4/21 – 27 -- OU's Green Week activities at which we'll densify. Time TBA

WHAT MAKES THESE EVENTS POSSIBLE? VOLUNTEERS who care about Creation and are willing to DO SOMETHING to help our Environmental Stewardship cause! YOU can volunteer by speaking with any of the Green Team members!

 HOW FAST IS THE FOAM RECYCLING PROGRAM GROWING? ******

January-February 2024 we made 267.5 LOGS. In 2023, we didn't reach 268.5 logs UNTIL JULY 31!

Because of this tremendous growth, the Green Team has been meeting almost weekly before Wednesday night worship to come up with a plan to make this ministry sustainable. We will give our best thoughts to Council to consider at their April Retreat.

ALERT, ULCSC GARDENERS! IT'S TIME! The Green Team's 7th Annual Plant Sale is April 14!

Please begin to consider how you can share your plants with church members at this great event! Plant a few extra tomatoes in pots to donate to the sale! (Be sure to mark what type they are.) Divide chrysanthemums and pot them in milk cartons to share. (Note color on a card stuck on a recycled plastic fork!) We'll offer everything from succulents to vegetables, honeysuckle vines to groundcover! The narthex will be set up on April 13, so you can bring plants early. This is the only fundraiser the Green Team does, so let's work together to fund caring for Creation.

Applying Bible Principles

A few years ago, the world was thrown into confusion and chaos. The Middle East had oil, and the rest of the world wanted that oil. This was a crisis situation. The perception was that we were running out of oil. In reality, that wasn't the situation at all. We were not running out of oil. As Larry O'Nan described it, "The core problem was a matter of imbalance, greed, and selfishness. Competition had created an environment where we thought we needed to get something before someone else got it."

Just as perception created an illusion that the world was running out of oil, perception has created an illusion when it comes to giving to the work of the Lord and to His ministry at University Lutheran Church. The perception is that our financial resources are insufficient to enable us to give. Some of us think that we simply cannot afford to give.

But that's not the situation at all. Even poverty is not a reason for not giving to the Lord. The Christians in Macedonia were very poor. As 2 Corinthians 8:2 describes them, they were in "extreme poverty." Yet, even in that situation, they were full of joy and gave as much as they were able — and more. How could they do that?

The reason they gave abundantly, eagerly and willingly out of their "extreme poverty" was that they "gave themselves first to the Lord." That's the secret of giving that honors God. When we give ourselves to Him wholeheartedly, without reservation, then our financial resources will follow.

During the reign of Oliver Cromwell, the government ran out of silver with which to make coins. Cromwell sent his men everywhere to see if they could find more of the precious metal. They returned to report that the only silver they could find was in the statues of the saints which were on display in various cathedrals. "Good," replied Cromwell. "We will melt down the saints and put them into circulation."

As you consider the offering which will be received next Sunday at University Lutheran Church, and as you consider the resources God has placed at your disposal, will you be "melted down" for His service and His glory? Like the Macedonian Christians, will you — regardless of your financial situation — first give yourself to the Lord and then allow your financial resources to follow?

Sunday Breakfast Providers Needed

Thank you to all who have signed up and provided delicious Sunday morning breakfasts! Volunteers are needed, so please sign up in the Welcome Center for one of the upcoming Sundays. Thank you!

Food and Shelter

The ULCSC outreach committee thanks all of you who have so generously supported Norman's Food and Shelter. Each day the shelter services over 150 Norman folks in need of a meal or housing. If you would like to consider a monetary donation, this is quite helpful in providing such needed items as eggs, milk, cheese, meat, etc. More information may be found on their website:

www.foodandshelterinc.org. Online donations are welcome and may be found on the Giving page of the church website: ulcsc.org. Again, thanks for your support of this ministry!

OU Food Pantry

Please drop off food donations directly to the pantry at 333 Cate Center Dr. or email the Pantry at oupantry@ou.edu to make an arrangement to drop off your donation. The OU Food Pantry is open Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, 10:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. Current needs are canned meats (chicken, tuna, beef stew, chili), dried and canned beans, peanut butter and jelly, rice, canned vegetables and fruits, soups with meat/beans, dried pastas, spaghetti sauce, and toiletries. Their FB page has an Amazon wish list, which makes for easy shopping/donation.
